DA Phil Sorrells Helps Honor Victims

Fort Worth, TX – Join our office next week for an event to mark National Crime Victims' Rights Week.

At 9 a.m. Monday, April 7, Tarrant County District Attorney Phil Sorrells will recognize the role victim service professionals play in the criminal justice system. In addition to his remarks, we will host a panel discussion featuring crime victims and survivors.

The public is welcome to attend the event at the Tom Vandergriff Civil Courts Building, 100 N. Calhoun Street, in downtown Fort Worth.

Tarrant County, including the DA's Office, has teams of victim service professionals who work to ensure that victims understand and are afforded their rights.

Throughout next week, wreaths gifted by DA Sorrells and this office will be displayed at Tarrant County subcourthouses and the Commissioners Court to show our solidarity in the fight to support victims.

National Crime Victims' Rights Week – a time to promote awareness about crime victim rights and honor survivors – runs April 6-12. This year's national theme is "Kinship, Connecting & Healing." The message is a call to action to support survivors and victims of crime.
