Paul H. Hamilton } State of Texas

To } Bill of Sale

Ellison Fur. Co } County of Tarrant

Know all Men By these Presents:

That I, Paul H. Hamilton of Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas, in consideration of Three Hundred ($300.00) dollars to me paid by the Ellison Furniture & Carpet Company, a corporation, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have bargained sold and conveyed, and by these presents do hereby bargain, sell and convey to the said Ellison Furniture & Carpet Company, a corporation, the following described personal property, viz:

My entire household goods list of which appears on the books of said Ellison Furniture & Carpet Company, a corporation, and the entire lot is stored with said company. In case of my shortages, I hereby acknowledge my responsibility for same, and agree to surrender such articles as are not now in their possession promptly upon demand. Also a certain set of Encyclopaedia Britannica, valued at one Hundred ($100.00) dollars. One box containing five guns (one shot gun and 4 rifles) valued at Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) dollars. One set of household silver-ware consisting of one hundred ^{and} six pieces, same in original chest as bought from the Mitchell-Greer Co of this city, valued at Three Hundred Fifty ($350.00) dollars.

The Encyclopedia, guns, and silver-ware are in transportation from Denver, Colorado, and are to be delivered upon their arrival here to the said Ellison Furniture & Carpet Company, a corporation. These articles as mentioned as having been shipped, were in the possession of John Strachan, Youngstown, Ohio, and an order for the bill of lading covering same is to-day given the Ellison Furniture & Carpet Co., a corporation, on Mr. Cay, in order they may gain possession of these articles immediately.

To have and to hold, the same to the use of the said Ellison Furniture & Carpet Company, a Corporation, their heirs, executors, administrators ^{and} assigns forever.

The said property are my own, and I have a right to see or convey them, ^{and} I bind myself, my heirs, executors, administrators, to warrant and forever defend title to said property unto the said Ellison Furniture & Carpet Company, a Corporation, their heirs, and assigns, against the lawful claim of any person whomsoever. Said property being now situated in Fort Worth, Tarrant County, State of Texas, ^{and} shall remain there subject to all conditions hereinafter mentioned.

The foregoing sale, however, is intended as a mortgage to secure an additional debt to the Ellison Furniture & Carpet Company, a Corporation, the same being evidenced by one note made by Paul H. Hamilton, dated the 6th day of March, 1915, and described as follows:

Note for Three Hundred ($300.00) dollars, payable to the Ellison Furniture & Carpet Company, a Corporation dated March 6th 1915, for sixty days, bearing ten per cent interest from date, with the usual waiver, and attorney's clauses which I hereby again ratify.

Provided nevertheless, that the said mortgagor shall duly pay said note according to the tenor ^{and} effect thereof, said conveyance shall become null ^{and} void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

The mortgagor, hereby expressly agrees, and covenants that default of payment of said principal or interest or any sale or attempt to sell said goods or chattel, or any part of them, or to remove them, or any part of them from the County or from their present location, after delivery of goods in transit, or upon any seizure of them or any part of them by proceeds of law, or if any holder of said note shall at any time feel unsafe, or insecure from any cause, then and in that event, said mortgagee or his assigns, agents or representatives, is hereby authorized at his option, to declare said note due, and take actual possession of said property, and to settle same at public auction for cash, at Fort Worth in Tarrant County, Texas, with or without having possession of said property present at said sale, after having given notice of the time, place and terms of said sale as the law now requires for sale of personal property under execution. And the proceeds arising from such sale, shall be applied, first to the necessary and proper expensed of such sale, then to the payment of said note, the balance, if any, to be paid mortgagor or his order. The said mortgagee or assigns, having power to receive said money, and make bill of sale of said property.

Do } Bill of Sale } Know all men by these presents:
George H. Autry, County of Tarrant }

That I, J. J. Thamer, for and in consideration of value to me in hand paid, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, have bargained, sold and conveyed, and by these presents do sell bargain and convey to George H. Autry, all the following described property, to-wit: The Barber shop, fixtures and all appertinances thereto, including barber chairs, supplies and other fixtures situated in Room 501 of the First National Bank Building in the City of Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas; To have and to hold the above described property and the appertinances thereto in any wise belonging, unto the said George H. Autry, his heirs and assigns forever.

And I hereby bind myself, heirs, executors and administrators to warrant and forever defend the above described property unto the said George H. Autry, his heirs and assigns, against every person whomsoever lawfully claiming same or any part thereof.

This conveyance however, is a mortgage intended to secure the said George H. Autry, the payment of two certain notes executed to him by me of even date herewith - the first for Twenty ($20) Dollars due and payable December 1, 1915; and the second for One Hundred ($100) Dollars due and payable March 1, 1916, both to bear interest at 8% per annum from date, and providing for the usual 10% attorney's fees if not paid at maturity and placed in the hands of an attorney for collection or suit.

It is understood that the first mortgage referred to herein, has reference to and means ^{One} hundred seventy-five ($175) Dollars now owing on said fixtures, and that no other mortgage shall be created or recognized in preference to the one herein created; and the said J. T. Thomas hereby agrees and assumes the payment of all of the $102⁰⁰ balance of a certain first mortgage for $175⁰⁰, executed and given by George H. Dutty and L. L. Gray, and any accounts for supplies and etc. used in connection with the said barber shop business.

Now in the event the said J. T. Thomas shall well and truly pay said notes and said first mortgage lien notes as they become due, according to their face, tenor, effect and reading, then this mortgage shall be satisfied; but in the event the said J. T. Thomas shall fail to pay either of said notes at maturity, or in the event he should fail to pay the eight certain notes aggregating $102⁰⁰, representing the balance of said first mortgage lien, as said notes fall due; then the said George H. Dutty may at any time thereafter at his option seize the property, and after advertising same for sale by posting three notices in as many public places in Tarrant County Texas, one to be placed at the Court House door, for ten days; sell same at public outcry and apply the proceeds thereof, in the payment first to the first mortgage notes, and then to the two notes herein described and expenses of such sale, and pay the rest over to the said J.  To } Bill of Sale }
 C. R. Crane, } Tarrant County, } Whereas, heretofore to-wit, and on the 1st day of March, A. D. 1915; Arthur Laskarides, Alex. Hittler and Christ Mitchell, executed to C. R. Crane of Fort Worth, Texas a certain chattel mortgage of that date which conveyed the following described property, to-wit: - All the fixtures, furnishings, tables, counter, chairs, stools, dishes, silverware, linen, kitchen utensils, together with all appliances, etc., incident to and connected with the Crane Cafe at No. 908 Houston Street, Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas, except the stock of cigars, etc., and other goods, wares and merchandise appertaining to said cafe and exposed to daily sale, said chattel mortgage is on file in the office of the Clerk of the County Court of Tarrant County, Texas, to secure the payment of 17 certain promissory notes aggregating $2000⁰⁰ of date March 1, 1915, executed by the said Arthur Laskarides, Alex Tsitcas and Christ Mitchell, one in the sum of $400⁰⁰, due April 1, 1915, bearing interest from date at the rate of eight per cent per annum, interest payable at maturity, and 16 promissory notes for the principal sum of $1000⁰⁰ each, the first one of said notes matured on May 1, 1915, and the others to mature on the first day of each month thereafter, and each of said notes bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum, which is payable as the said notes mature and all of the said notes providing for the usual ten per cent additional on the principal and interest as attorney's fees if they are sued on or collected by an attorney or through the Probate Court; and,

Whereas the said chattel mortgage provided in substance that in case said indebtedness or any part thereof was not paid at maturity the holder thereof was fully authorized to seize and take into his possession all of the property described in said chattel mortgage and to sell the same at either private or public vendue, with the privilege of buying the same himself; and,

Whereas, the said note due May 1st, is long past due and unpaid and the makers of them, Arthur Laskarides, Alex Tsitcas, and Christ Mitchell have failed and refused to pay the same or any part thereof in accordance with its terms, tenor, reading and effect, the said mortgagee exercised his right to declare all of the said notes due; and,

Whereas, more than ten days prior to Friday, May 14, 1915, notice of the sale of said property under said chattel mortgage was given as provided by said chattel mortgage and in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, for the sale of personal property under execution and herein it was advertised that said sale would be held on Friday, May 14, 1915, between the hours of ten o'clock

A.M. and four o'clock P.M. and,

Whereas the said property was sold in accordance with the said notice and in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, and in accordance with said chattel mortgage at the premises where it was situated in Tarrant County, Texas, on Friday, May 14, 1915, between the hours of ten o'clock A.M. and four o'clock P.M. at which sale the same was struck off to C.R. Crane who was the highest and best bidder for the sum of $6000, which was the highest and best bid received for it. Now therefore, in consideration of the premises and in consideration of the sum of $6000, to C.R. Crane in hand paid, receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the said C.R. Crane under the power conferred upon him in said mortgage has sold and conveyed and by these presents does bargain, sell, convey and deliver unto the said C.R. Crane the above described personal property,

To have and to hold unto the said C.R. Crane his heirs and assigns forever.

W.C. Mann, Sheriff

To Sheriff's Book

W.C. McKee

The State of Texas

County of Tarrant.

Know all men

By these Presents:

That, I, J. C. Mann, by virtue of a certain Order of Sale issued out of the District Court of the County of Tarrant in the State of Texas, in favor of K. C. McKee and ^{against} A. C. McKee on a certain judgment rendered on the 25th day of May 1914, and directed and delivered to me, as Sheriff of Tarrant County, commanding me to levy upon and sell as under execution, at public vendue, to the highest and best bidder, J. N. C. Mann, Sheriff, as aforesaid, did on the 10th day of July 1915, levy upon and take into my possession the property hereinafter described, and after advertising the same as required by law, I did on the 24th day of July 1915, within the hours prescribed by law, at the South Court House Door, sell said property at public vendue when the same was struck off to K. C. McKee for the sum of ($100.00) One Hundred Dollars, being the highest bidder therefor.

Now therefore in consideration of the premises and the payment of said sum of ($100.00) One Hundred Dollars, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, J. N. C. Mann, Sheriff as aforesaid, have sold and by these presents do bargain, sell and deliver unto the said K. C. McKee all the right, title and interest which the said A. C. McKee had on the 10th day of July 1915, in and to the following described property, to-wit:

The houses and improvements situated on Lots Nos. 1 and 4 in Block No. 37, City of Fort Worth, Texas. The houses situated on the following described portion of Lot No. 4, ^{however} are to be sold subject to the life estate granted to the defendant A. C. McKee, and are not to be removed during her life time:

Beginning at the S. E. corner of said lot No. 4; Thence N. Along the S. line of said lot No. 4, 100 feet to a stake; Thence N. 81.8 feet; Thence S. 63-1/3 N. (C) 100.16 feet to the E. line of said lot No. 4; Thence S. 76 feet to the place of beginning.

To Have and to hold the same unto the said K. C. McKee his heirs and assigns, forever, as fully as I, as Sheriff, as aforesaid, can sell, transfer and dispose of the same by virtue of said order of Sale

Chas. Evans by Sheriff }
To Bill of Sale. } The State of Texas }
Malvina F. Baker } County of Tarrant } Know all men by these presents: That whereas, by virtue of a certain order of sale issued out of the 6th District Court of the County of Tarrant in the State of Texas in favor of Malvina F. Baker and against Charles Evans, on a certain judgment rendered on the 9th day of July 1916, and directed and delivered to me, as Sheriff of Tarrant County, Commanding me levy upon and sell at Public auction to highest bidder the following described personal property, J. N. C. Mann, Sheriff as aforesaid, did on the 4th day of August 1916, levy upon and take into my possession, the property hereinafter described, and after advertising the same as required by law, I did on the 16th day of August 1916, within the hours prescribed by law, at The South Court House door sell said property at public vendue when the same was struck off to Malvina F. Baker, for the sum of ($1000.00) One Thousand & no/100 Dollars she being the highest bidder therefor.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises and the payment of said sum of ($1000.00) One Thousand & no/100 Dollars, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, J. N. C. Mann, Sheriff as aforesaid have sold, and by these presents do bargain, sell and deliver unto the said Malvina F. Baker, all the right title and interest which the said Charles Evans had on the 4th day of August 1916, in and to the following described property to wit; 1- $24,000. Note from Barney Pearson, et al to Chas. Evans, fully described in said Judgment,

To have and to hold the same unto the said Malvina F. Baker or her, heirs and assigns forever, as fully as I, as Sheriff, as aforesaid can sell transfer and dispose of the same by virtue of said order of sale,

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand, this 16th day of August A.D. 1916

That whereas Mitchell H. Harris and Esir Ablon have been copartners in the ownership and conduct of a shoe shinning establishment situated at 713^{1/2} Main Street in the City of Fort Worth, Texas, known as the "Perishing Parlor"; and

Whereas the said Ablon is unable to give any time and attention to the business because of his other business interests; and

Whereas the said Berthing Parlor is in debt to various persons, and the said Ablon desires to be relieved from said debts and from his liability on a certain lease contract with Steve Delson, from whom the aforesaid premises are leased:

Now, therefore, in consideration of the fact that said Mitchell H. Harris now here agrees to, and does assume the payment of all the outstanding debts of said business, and all and every liability growing out of the lease contract on said premises with the aforesaid Delson, said debts described as follows: W. C. Stripling, balance on piano $65⁰⁰; Acers Sign Company $45⁰⁰; Elson Furniture Company $70⁰⁰; Pemberton Furniture Company $54⁰⁰; National Cash Register Company $37⁵⁰; J. Solomon $18⁰⁰; unexpired lease contract to Steve Delson;

Now, therefore, these presents are to certify: That the said copartnership is hereby dissolved, and the said Sir Ablon, for the consideration hereinabove named, has this day, sold, transferred and conveyed unto the said Mitchell H. Harris all and singular his interest, in and to the aforesaid business, the good will of same and the name by which said business is known, and all and singular the property and assets of same. That the personal property of said business consists of one certain piano; 11 shoe shining chairs with base platform; 22 steel foot rests; 1 mirror 2x24; 1 National Cash Register; linoleum on the floor of said premises; electric sign and all other signs; all the shoe ^{polish} paste and other materials used in connection with the shining of shoes, and all the utensils, tools and devices in connection therewith; all shoe brushes, shoe strings, shoe case, wainscoting, electrical fixtures; and all and every other kind of property, chattels, utensils, materials and devices owned by said establishment and used in connection therewith, whether hereinabove enumerated or not; it being the intention of this instrument to convey to the said Harris the entire business and all and every property belonging thereto, used in connection therewith and pertaining to same; also conveying and transferring unto the said Mitchell H. Harris the leasehold interest in and to the aforesaid premises.

And the said Mitchell H. Harris hereby agrees to assume the payment of all debts due said business as hereinabove enumerated and to save the said Esir Ablon harmless and free from all liabilities or obligation with respect to same.
