BOOK REVIEWS

ANCESTORING THROUGH WEEKLY NEWSPAPER COLUMNS - A compilation of columns appearing in the pages of the Jefferson Reporter, Jefferson County, Georgia.

By Jeanne and C. W. Stephens, SCRA Publications, Wrens, Georgia 30833, price not listed but could be obtained from the compilers.

This is very well done and personally, I believe, very much needed. It has cardstock cover, 62 pages, plus index of the genealogical columns printed in the Jefferson newspapers. There are maps, pictures, charts, queries, how-to columns, and much, much more. Anyone having relatives in this area of Georgia should get a copy of this publication. Being an editor of a quarterly, I cannot stress strongly enough, the importance of queries and compiling and binding. . . plus the added value of an index. . . will give them longer shelf life.

There are historical articles as well as instructional and some give up-to-date aids and suggestions for the genealogist. I wish more editors of columns would consider publishing their accumulated columns.

ANCESTORING IV - A quarterly published by the Augusta Genealogical Society, Inc., P. O. Box 3743, Augusta, GA 30904. This is published semi-annually and is $6.50 per copy.

A beautifully published quarterly, unusual in that it is printed in sepia, rather than the usual black and white. Tastefully planned with interesting articles, maps, pictures, diagrams, illustrations, and informative material. This issue contained 100 pages with a full name index.

Some of the records listed were of funerals, cemetery records, church records, minutes of church meetings, tax lists, surname search of members, plus much more.

If you are researching in this area, this quarterly would be of great assistance to you.

IT'S A FACT!

According to Stephen F. Austin, the first arden spirits of any kind made in his colony was a bottle of rum distilled in 1829 by Martin Varner and Israel Waters.

An excerpt from the Senate Journal Vol. 6, No. 2 states "Dr. Edmund J. Felder, a citizen of Harris County, on July 2, 1839 was appointed assistant surgeon in the Texan Army and reported for duty to Captain Reuben Ross and proceeded with his command from Houston to Gonzales and thence by way of San Antonio to the Nueces near San Patricio. Capt. Ross then moved to the Rio Grande, fought the successful battle of Mier on November 1, 1839, where he had five of his men wounded. The petitioner in compliance with orders remained with the wounded men until they could be removed with safety to Matamoros. There he procured a company of seventeen men, it being dangerous to cross the desert between the Rio Grande and the Nueces because of Mexicans and Indians, and proceeded to the settlements on the Guadalupe, and then to the City of Austin, arriving there early in January, 1840 and made his last report to the Adjutant General. Then, and not until then, was he informed that he had been stricken from the service rolls. Himself and the whole of Captain Ross' command were published in every paper throughout the Republic as deserters. He prayed Congress to take such measures as would relieve him from the stigma of desertion and grant him compensation for services actually rendered." With the petition are his appointment by Charles Mason, Chief Clerk in the War Department; instructions from Dr. Thomas P. Anderson, Acting Surgeon General; orders from B. H. ## WALKER

Dr. Samuel Walker, M.D. (1826-1893), born in Tennessee, and his wife Margaret, born Missouri, buried Macedonia Cemetery, Stephenville, Texas. Lived in Jasper County, Missouri, 1850 with one child. They seemed to have spent several years in Arkansas where they had other children, then appear in Hamilton County, Texas, on the 1870 census. Between 1870 and 1880 they probably lived in Comanche County. By 1880 the family had moved to near Caddo in Stephens County, and had nine children. Claude Walker, a grandson of Dr. Walker, did research on this family until his death in 1972. He was a businessman and city councilman in Haltom City for a number of years. Having no children, he left his estate to an orphanage, and all of his research was lost to our family at his death. Does anyone know if his research papers still exist and where they are located?

BOOK REVIEWS

by Patricia Chadwell

Stamps, Tonita Ayers and Weldon I. Hudson. Our Hudson Heritage.
Published by the authors, c. 1980. (Contact Weldon Hudson 2807 Cedar Park Blvd., Ft. Worth, Texas 76118). 465pp.

This genealogy of the descendants of William Hudson, b. ca 1739/40, d. 1813 and his wife Susannah Allen, of Edgefield Dist., S.C. and Hancock Co., Georgia, is, as we would expect the work of these compilers to be, copiously documented, including facsimile reprints of many originals. A clear system of organization by generation is employed and brief biographies of most descendants are included. Complete records of "Old Liberty" cemetery in Lincoln Co., Mo.; Ingram Cemetery, Pike Co., Mo.; Thomas Hudson Cemetery, Pike Co., Mo.; and New Liberty Cemetery, Lincoln Co., Mo. are included.

The book is well indexed and copiously illustrated. Its only drawback is an unfortunate format: loose pages put together with a plastic connector. The review copy had come apart before we received it. On the whole, a welcome addition to family history collections.

Jarvis, Grace H., C.G. 1850 Census, Clark County, Georgia.
Jacksonville, Fla. Jacksonville Genealogy Society. (4859 Amherst Street, Jacksonville, Florida 32205), 1981. $10.00
plus $1.00 postage and handling.

What can you say about a transcribed census? This one has obviously been carefully transcribed and is thoroughly indexed. The format is good. Four maps have been included. Those who have a strong research interest in the area will want to purchase.

Dollar, Claudine, Cemetery Records of Jackson County, Oklahoma.
Blair, Okla.: Pioneer Pub. Co., 1980. $7.50. Order from the author, Box 487, Blair, Okla. 73526.

It's always good to see material coming out of Oklahoma. The author has copied all the cemeteries in this county, giving locations, and has copied them in burial order. She has done a surname index, and has included a township map of the county showing cemetery locations. Format is offset with paper covers. Strongly recommended for individuals interested in the area and libraries with Oklahoma Collections.

Brown, Shirley Tedwig. 1860 Census, Matagorda County, Texas. Bay City, Texas: Matagorda County Genealogical Society (P. O. Box 264, Bay City, TX 77414), 1981. 76pp. No price given.

This is a beautifully done index of the population and slave schedules for Matagorda County, 1860, with an every name index. Until comprehensive statewide indexes are available for 1860 and 1870, individual county compilations are invaluable. Congratulations to the Matagorda Co. Genealogical Society for this one.

Kelly, Geraldine. That They Live: Burden, Clark, Fuller, Howard, Jolly, Morrow, Pippen, Riley, Smalley, Spradlin, Tilton and Williams Families. Arlington: The Author, 1981. (Contact Mrs. John Kelly, 2605 Keystone Drive, Arlington, TX 76011).

These are the ancestors of Mrs. Kelly, and their descendants, a sort of mix of family history and genealogy. Those who tie into her lines will find a wealth of carefully compiled, well documented information in a beautifully printed, bound, illustrated and indexed volume.

The earliest progenitors included Joseph Burden and Isabella Morrow, Hardin Co., Tenn. to Hill County, Texas; Cornelius Clark, b. 1763 of North Carolina, Georgia and Madison Co., Alabama and wife Amy; James Howard and Hannah Giffers, Rockingham Co., Va. and Nelson Co., Ky.; James Morrow and wife Cynthia Jones, McNairy Co., Tenn.; John C. Tilton and Jane Elizabeth Smally, Hardeman Co., Tenn.; John Whitfield Riley and Ann Tilton, Tippah Co., Miss.; Henry Bascom Spradlin and Mary Darwin, Wilson Co., Tenn. and Collin Co., Texas; and John C. Williams of Collin County.

One additional note: since Mrs. Kelly has outlined her research procedures throughout the book, other genealogists can learn a great deal by reading it, whether or not they connect.

Woodard, Jewell Daphne Gerron. Ancestors of Dr. Franklin Columbus Woodard and his Descendants, 1757-1982. Ft. Worth, Texas: The author, 1982. 138 pp. (Contact the author: 814 W. Terrell, Ft. Worth, Texas 76104).

One of the first books I ever reviewed was Mrs. Woodard's history of her family, The Gerons, which she published in 1968, so I expected this to be very special book, and was not disappointed. Dr. Franklin Columbus Woodard's ancestry is traced back to Charles Woodard (1757-1843) of Clarke and Maringo Cos., Alabama. Biographical sketches of each of Dr. Woodard's children are given and some are given for their children. Mrs. Woodard has illustrated the book with numerous document facsimiles, photographs and charming little sketches by Ed Curry and Oneida Uzzell. There is an extensive bibliography and list of sources and a fine index. A final comment: as with her earlier book, she has spared no expense to make this one a thing of beauty.

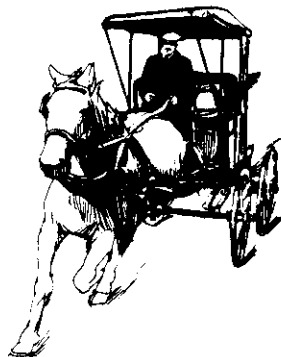

Campbell, Dorothy Spears and Shirley Spears Nowicki. George Boone son of Edward Boone, Killed by the Indians in 1780, and Nephew of Daniel Boone, The Famed Explorer. Arlington, Texas: the authors, 1982. 336pp. $35.00. Order from Dorothy Spears Campbell, 6109 Calcutta Court, Arlington, Texas 76016.

This Boone genealogy, the Descendants of George Boone, of the title, is to be published in time for Christmas of this year. While we have not seen the final format, the galley is most impressive. The type size, spacing, arrangement and the printing of all personal names in bold-face type make the text much more legible than that of the average family history. There are 118 facsimile reproductions of documents and photographs as illustrations

Research on the early generations seems to be well done and descendants are clearly enumerated. However, fifteen pages of the royal ancestry of the deBohun family, from whom the Boones are supposed (but not proved) to be descended is, genealogically, non-de rigueur. This however, is our only criticism of an otherwise fine book, which, by the by, has an excellent index.

President's Page

I would like to extend my sincerest thanks and those of the members of the Fort Worth Genealogical Society to all of you who helped make the celebration of our 25th Anniversary such a success. We are especially grateful to Marc and Nancy Smith for the use of their home. We are also indebted to the members of the Arrangements Committee - Dorothy Peters, Barbara McLane, Frances Bickford and those who helped them - for the musical program presented by the four young people from the Little Symphony and the harpsichord selections by Dorothy Hutcheson, the talented daughter of one of our past presidents, Ellie Hutcheson.

Certificates of recognition were presented to those charter members who have been continually active in the Society since its inception in 1957, most of whom were in attendance. They are as follows: Mrs. Byron P. Pattie, Mrs. Richard N. Grammer, Mr. Theron L. Smith, Mrs. Warren G. Knox, Mrs. M.R. Matthews, Mrs. Mayme Corley Turner, Mrs. Louis E. Bonelli, Mrs. A.B. Harmonson, Mrs. L.P. Kestler, and Mrs. Homer L. Roper. Their devoted service over the past twenty five years is deeply appreciated.

May the next quarter century be as eventful and as full of service to the genealogical community and the Genealogy and Local History Section of the Fort Worth Public Library.

With this in mind, we would like at this time to publicize the fact that microfiche copies of the Fort Worth City Directories for the years from 1877 through 1927 are now on the Library shelves. The printing of this microfiche was sponsored jointly by the Society and the Tarrant County Historical Commission. Fort Worth Genealogy Society's share in the cost was made possible by a generous contribution from a member of the Board of Directors. Our thanks to all concerned in making this gift to our Library possible.

Concrete plans are now underway for the third annual Conference in the States of which FWGS will be the host society, April 13th - 16th, 1983. The Texas and Southwest oriented program, with the slogan "G.T.T. in '83", will be ready for distribution October 1, 1982, according to Program Chairman, Richard Lackey. Weldon Hudson is the local Arrangements Chairman.

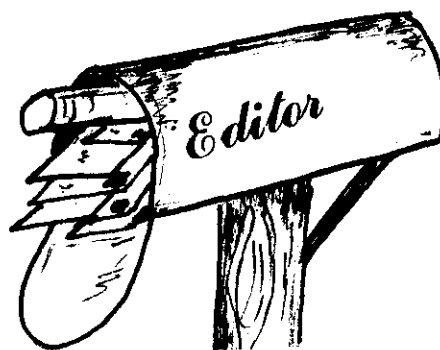

Happy ancestor-ing!

Usually our query section contains at least eight to ten pages and I am disappointed that this is the first issue we have fallen below the average.

Queries are so important. . . I know we all put off doing what is such a small chore, but it is FREE! You don't find much in the present times that is free, so make use of this useful aid.

Queries in newspapers are wonderful, because they reach so many people who are not members, or may or may not even be interested in genealogy. . .but they do reach them. However, they do have a very short life span. But, queries placed in the quarterlies have a very long life span. One very good example: I placed a query in a national magazine requesting a copy of a marriage record of grandparents where the courthouse had burned in 1823. Exactly seven years later, I received a copy of the original marriage certificate that had lain in a trunk all these years. A descendant had just started on his family (after viewing Roots), went back through old quarterlies, and thought I might still be interested. Was I! that is the only way I could have ever proven their marriage.

I am still receiving answers to queries placed many years ago. Most people stay in their homes over ten years. Take a chance! Lots of us think if we do not receive an answer in the first return mail, what is the use. Within the past three months I have received request and information regarding queries placed from three to seven years ago. I keep carbons to verify when and where I place them.

On page 147 of this issue of FOOTPRINTS, I was asked to review a "Compilation of Newspaper Columns" published by Jeanne and C. W. Stephens of Wrens, GA. I think it is a great assist to genealogists. I wish more of these columns could be compiled, indexed and put on our library shelves.

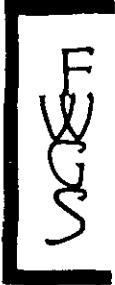

Personally, I have always been a great advocate of these columns and over the many, many years I have researched family information for myself as well as others, they have been one of the greatest aids to me.

So take a minute to help yourself - write those queries you have put off doing. FOOTPRINTS prints all queries free for members or non-members, the only stipulation is that it have a Texas connection.

MAIL YOUR QUERY TODAY!!

It's that time of year again. . .when we pause and think of all our friends...wish them well and thank them for so many, many things.

During all my years as your editor, I have been blessed with the greatest "gung-ho" group of workers anyone could wish for. They have abstracted, copied, typed, collated, indexed, "goshed and darned" through thousands and thousands of sheets for your benefit and research. How do you thank them all?

Now, maybe you would like to help in return. We do need abstracters to copy records in outlying counties. . .especially some of the ones where no, or few, records have been printed. I had four ladies abstract newspapers for me for only two days, but they provided enough information for almost two years of FOOTPRINTS.

BEFORE COPYING ANYTHING, please be sure to check with me, or in the Topical Index to see if it has been printed. So far we have only printed primary and secondary source material. . .no family histories as yet. We try to diversify, so there is not too much of any one thing, yet something for everyone. We want only Texas records, with the exception of Bible Records which we print from wherever.

We need old newspaper abstracts, wills, births, deaths, Bible records, Sheriff's records, cemeteries, funeral homes, etc. etc. Anything that will place a person at some place in time, somewhere in Texas. One of our members abstracted a fraternal lodge history book. Maybe you can think of something different or one of a kind that everyone does not have access to. . .if so please contact me before doing a great deal of work, to see if it could be used for FOOTPRINTS.

I usually "lay out" the next year's FOOTPRINTS a whole year in advance. (At least two-thirds of it). It must be typed and ready a month before mail out each February, May, August and November. The November issue must be ready, typed, proofed, and then indexed before the 15th of October to be ready to mail out in November. Soooo, you see I am always working far ahead. My biggest nightmare is to have 200++ blank pages staring at me and no "goodies" for you

ANYWAY, if you can help, please let us hear from you. . . in the meantime, you and yours do have the HAPPIEST OF HOLIDAY SEASONS!

See your next year!

Lucille Miller
