TARRANT COUNTY

FAMILY MEDIATION TRAINING

30-Hour Family Mediation Training | Four-Day Virtual Course

Cost: $700

ABOUT THE TRAINING

Tarrant County Dispute Resolution offers a 40-Hour Family Mediation Training based on the community-centered mediation model. Participants gain the skills and credentials required to serve as family mediators in Texas through lectures, demonstrations, role plays, and practice mediations. Certificates are awarded upon successful completion.

PREREQUISITE

40-Hour Basic Mediation Training.

TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

Desktop or laptop computer with camera and microphone required; tablets and phones are not permitted. Full attendance of all 40 hours is required. Participants must remain visible on camera.

ACCREDITATION

Meets the requirements of Texas Civil Practice & Remedies Code §154.052 and complies with Texas Mediation Trainers Roundtable (TMTR) and Texas Mediator Credentialing Association (TMCA) standards.

ATTORNEY OPPORTUNITY

Tarrant County has a need for Family Law Attorney Mediators. Eligible DFW-area attorneys may attend at no cost in exchange for mediating five cases for Tarrant County Dispute Resolution during the following year.
