DEFERRED DISPOSITION
CCP ART. 45.0511

You are eligible for Deferred Disposition if you are charged with a moving violation and have not been on Deferred in the last 12 months and did not commit any of the following:

- Speeding 25 or more miles over the posted speed limit
- Speeding at a speed of 95 mph or more
- Passing a school bus
- Failure to stop and remain at the sceneafter an accident involving damage to a vehicle
- Failure to stop and give information and render aid after an accident resulting in injury or death of a person or damage to a vehicle
- Offense occurring in construction zone with workers present

Juvenile (a person 16 or under when the offense occurred) must contact the court for instructions.

To qualify for Deferred Disposition you must complete one of the following:
Appear in person:
- Appear on or before the answer date of your ticket
- Have a valid Texas driver's license or permit, or be a member or the spouse of a dependent child of a member of the United States Military forces service active duty (CDL holders are not eligible)
- Sign an affidavit entering a plea of guilty or not contest
- Pay administrative fees and costs assessed by the court

Make a request in writing:
- Send a written request and plea for Deferred Disposition by mail to JP6, 6551 Granbury Road, Fort Worth Texas 76133
  - You must have contacted the court prior to mailing your request to be given the correct amount of fees to pay
  - Mail a money order or cashier's check for deferred fees
- Send a written request and plea for Deferred Disposition by email to jp6clerk@tarrantcountytx.gov
  - You must include a plea and waiver of trial
  - Once plea is received, the court will send instructions to make your payment online

The court shall defer the proceedings for a term of 90-180 days. As long as you were not convicted of the same type of offense during the deferral, you will be required to return a notarized affidavit of completing Deferred Disposition.

NO PERSON CHECKS ACCEPTED BY MAIL