

Default Judgments Research Guide

Overview

This research guide includes information and resources on default judgments. A default judgment is “a judgment entered against a defendant who has failed to plead or otherwise defend against the plaintiff’s claim.” (Black’s Law Dictionary, 11th ed.) If a defendant does not appear for a scheduled hearing, the plaintiff/petitioner could be granted a default judgment by the judge. The resources listed below are not exhaustive and may not include the most up-to-date information. It is for information purposes only and should not be construed as legal advice or act as the substitute for legal counsel.
