

Virtual or Telephonic Court Hearings Research Guide

Overview

This research guide includes information and resources on virtual or telephonic court hearings. These can also be called videoconferences, teleconferences, remote, or electronic court hearings. Court hearings held over by video, often Zoom, or by telephone are becoming more widely used in response to the coronavirus pandemic. Judges may have different rules on virtual or telephonic hearings, so check with your court coordinator to learn about the rules for your court. The resources listed below are not exhaustive and may not include the most up-to-date information. It is for information purposes only and should not be construed as legal advice or act as the substitute for legal counsel.
