Re: _____

(style of case and designation of court)

To Whom It May Concern:

This is a formal request for registration of a child custody determination issued by a court of another state under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, section 152.305 of the Texas Family Code.

I have enclosed two copies, including one certified copy, of the determination sought to be registered and a statement under penalty of perjury that to the best of my knowledge, the order has not been modified.

My name, address, and relationship to the child[ren] are as follows:

Name: _____

Address: _____

Relationship to child[ren]: _____

The name, address, and relationship to the child[ren] for any other parent or person acting as a parent who has been awarded custody or visitation in the child custody determination sought to be registered is as follows:

Name: _____

Address: _____

Relationship to child[ren]: _____

Name: _____

Address: _____

Relationship to child[ren]: _____

Notice of Registration of Foreign Child Custody Determination

To: _____
(name of nonregistering party)

You are hereby notified of the following:

1. A copy of a child custody determination that has been registered under Texas Family Code chapter 152, subchapter D, is attached to this notice, along with any accompanying documents and information.
2. A registered child custody determination is enforceable as of the date of the registration in the same manner as a child custody determination issued by a Texas court.
3. A hearing to contest the validity of the registered child custody determination must be requested within twenty (20) days after service of this notice.
4. Failure to contest the registration will result in confirmation of the child custody determination and preclude further contest of that determination with respect to any matter that could have been asserted.
